GOVERNOR EVANS' DEFIANCE.

South Carolina's Chief Magistrate Ignores the Injunction of Judge Simonton.

COLUMBIA, S. C., June 1.—Several seizures of liquor were made yesterday in pursuance of an order issued by Governor Evans, all apparently in violation of Judge Simonton's injunction holding unconstitutional, as a violation of the interstate commerce law, the section of the dispensary law providing for seizures of all liquor brought into that state except for the dispensaries.

RICHMOND, Va., June 1.—Judge Goff yesterday afternoon granted an order suspending the temporary injunction in both the Richland and Newberry cases of the famous South Carolina registration case which came up on a motion to docket in the United States circuit court of appeals. June 6 was set as the day on which the court will hear argument in the case. The effect of the order granted by Judge Goff will be to allow to the supervisors of the registration of Richland and Newberry counties to open the books of registration on next Monday under the laws of South Carolina.

GOVERNOR EVANS.

Monster Petroleum Fire in Germany.

HAMBURG, June 1.—A monster conflagration, which raged for hours, started in the Bremen Trading company's petroleum tanks at Harburg last evening. The fire covered an enormous extent of ground. Thousands of barrels of petroleum, in addition to five tanks of the Bremen Trading company were destroyed. All the available fire engines and the whole of the Pioneer battalion were only able to protect the laborers' cottages. The Gaiser factory and the American company's petroleum depot are safe. The town is on the south bank of the Elbe, about six miles south of Hamburg, and has a population of about 18,000 largely given up to industrial pursuits.

The President's Return to Washington.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—The special Baltimore and Ohio train conveying the president and cabinet party from Secretary Gresham's funeral arrived here at 5:04 last evening, exactly on time. All the members of the cabinet save Secretaries Carlisle and Morton, together with Senors Mendonca and Romero, representing the diplomatic corps, returned on the train. None of the cabinet will express any opinion as to who will be the late secretary's successor. Indeed, Postmaster General Wilson declared the subject had not been mentioned. The president went direct to Woodley, without stopping at the White House.

Greenhut Must Testify.

CHICAGO, June 1.—J. B. Greenhut, ex-president of the whisky trust, walked into the hands of the enemy and the jurisdiction of the United States court yesterday when he arrived from New York and went to the Great Northern hotel. For ten days detectives have been on Mr. Greenhut's trail, in order that when he came to Chicago he might be served with notice to appear before Master in Chancery Booth and tell all he knows about the untold doings of the old management. He arrived at the hotel in the morning, but escaped service until afternoon, when he was identified and the notice served.

The Trainmen's Books All Right.

GALESBURG, Ills., June 1.—The expert who for a week has been examining the books of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen reported to the convention yesterday. He found no shortage in the accounts of the officers. He reported that the printing plant had been run at a loss of over $6,000 last year. The convention accepted his report. The convention also adopted a system of graded insurance policies, to be $400, $800 and $1,000. It also decided that on Monday bids for permanent headquarters would be acted on.

Acting Secretary Uhl.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—It has been discovered that the president is not under the necessity of making an appointment to fill the vacancy caused in the office of secretary of state by the death of Secretary Gresham within thirty days, as was at first supposed. Mr. Uhl, the first assistant secretary, becomes acting secretary without an act of the president's, and the latter makes no temporary appointment and so is not obliged to fill the vacancy in thirty days, as he would be if he did make such an appointment.

North Carolina's Hot Wave.

RALEIGH, June 1.—The hot weather record for May in North Carolina was broken yesterday. The temperature rose to 98. Intense heat will prove extremely injurious to some crops, as they are backward and weak. Truck crops this year are by far the largest ever grown in this state.

A Florida Lynching.

COLUMBIA, Fla., June 1.—A mob took James Freeman, colored, from a guard of four men, tied him to a tree and shot him to death. He had tried to criminally assault Mrs. Consel, also colored, and had pleaded guilty before a justice of the peace.

Death of Lord Gough.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—A cablegram received at the British embassy announces the death of Lord Gough, the hero of India and father of Hon. Hugh Gough, first secretary of the embassy here, who now succeeds to the title and estates.

ORGANIZED FOR ARSON.

Confessions of Men Who Made Incendiarism a Profession.

WORKED ON SCIENTIFIC PLANS.

How the Firebugs Destroyed the Evidence of Their Crime—Insurance Adjusters Interested in the Work of the Gang Will be Arrested.

NEW YORK, June 1.—Morris Schoenholz, who was arrested recently on the charge of arson, has made a statement to the police which will probably result in the arrest of a dozen or more insurance adjusters. It is alleged that Schoenholz confessed to firing at least half a dozen houses in this city and Brooklyn by prearrangements for the insurance. One "fire" in Yonkers was all prepared and ready, when it was prevented by accident.

The fires that "panned out" were all set with benzine on the bladder plan. This plan is as simple as it is effective. The doomed store or flat is sprinkled with alcohol and a bladder filled with the inflammable stuff is suspended from the ceiling. Then it is set on fire, and when the flames reach the bladder there is an explosion which destroys the property and every vestige of the manner in which the fire was set.

A similar result is obtained by turning on all the gas and letting one jet burn. The explosive point is reached in due time. These are flash fires that so long puzzled police and firemen. Morris Schoenholz was the expert who did the business, but he was himself simply the tool of a gang of fire adjusters.

Another member of the gang, named Hirschkopf, has also made a confession. The firebugs, according to Hirschkopf, are oath bound and have regular headquarters. The conspiracy is known as the "dark secret," and each member was duly initiated. Schoenholz is said to have been the head, or "chief mechanic," of the gang which fired the west side apartment houses, the headquarters of which was in a saloon in Suffolk street.

According to Hirschkopf, who fled to San Francisco at the time of his indictment several months ago, Schoenholz tried to burn to death Simon Rosenbaum, who was suspected of betraying the conspiracy, in a fire which he started at Lynn, Mass.

Rosenbaum, who was formerly the "chief mechanic" of the Isaacs gang, was frightfully burned, and upon his recovery was the principal witness against Adjuster Grauer on his trial last February. Rosenbaum then testified that he knew one member of the gang who was driven insane by torture, because his fellow conspirators suspected he was a traitor.

Crisis in the Olneyville Strike.

PROVIDENCE, June 1.—The strike committee spent the day in discussing the situation, chiefly considering the approaching crisis when the mills reopen on Monday morning. The committee claim to have been greatly helped just at this time by the increase in wages at the Washington mills at Lawrence, Mass., which manufactures the same class of goods as the Riverside mills at Olneyville. The strikers' committee state that the manufacturers have sent agents to Quebec to procure non-union French weavers to insure the running of the mills on Monday. The committee has engaged a lawyer, and if any foreign labor is imported, the manufacturers will be prosecuted under the alien contract labor law.

"Ohio Will Send a Solid Delegation."

CLEVELAND, June 1.—No man stands closer to Governor McKinley or is more interested in his candidacy for the presidency than Hon. M. A. Hanna, of this city. Speaking to an Associated Press representative concerning the speculation as to the effect of the Foraker victory in the Republican state convention upon McKinley's prospects he said: "They will not be affected in the least. Governor McKinley has more friends in Ohio now than he ever had before, and he has more in all the other states of the Union. This talk about a divided Ohio delegation in the national Republican convention is all bosh. Ohio will send a solid and loyal McKinley delegation to the national convention."

Columbia's Claim for Damages.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—General Rengifo, the representative here of the republic of Colombia, expects to be authorized by his government to present a claim against the United States for damages sustained by Colombia by reason of President Harrison's proclamation of tariff retaliation. General Rengifo is not able to estimate the amount of the claim, as he has not yet received instruction from his government, but he says there is no doubt of the fact that the claim will be presented.

Advance in the Price of Coke.

PITTSBURG, June 1.—It is generally understood here that furnace coke for July delivery has been advanced to $1.50 a ton, and it is rumored that another advance will be made in July. The present price is $1.35 a ton. The advance will cause a similar advance in all the iron and steel products, and is regarded as an indication that further advances will be made in the price of labor.

Baby Butchered by a Boy.

BALTIMORE, June 1.—The 9-months-old baby of George Simpson, who resides near Marion station, Somerset county, was horribly butchered by a colored boy. The parents of the child had engaged a colored girl to nurse it, and while they were absent the colored girl took it to her home, where a small negro cut it nearly to pieces with a knife.

Malicious Murder in Omaha.

OMAHA, Neb., June 1.—Harry Parker, a 16-year-old colored boy, known as "Diamond Kid," was standing on one of the principal streets here when an unknown white man walked up and stabbed him to the heart. The boy fell dead. His murderer walked calmly away.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

Very Encouraging Reports from the Industrial World.

NEW YORK, June 1.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: More far reaching than any other change during the past week, if really warranted by facts, is the continued rise in prices of wheat and cotton. Real scarcity of either would affect all business. Happily there is still room to hope that accounts of injury are greatly exaggerated, although there has been some evidence during the week that both the great crops have suffered more than at first appeared. Other changes are almost all favorable and some highly encouraging. Labor troubles are clearly less threatening. Monetary conditions are satisfactory, and the substantial increase in the commercial demand is a good sign.

The failures during the past week have been 215 in the United States against 188 for the same week last year, and 34 in Canada against 27 last year.

Bradstreets' review says: Reports from manufacturing industries at seventy-five cities east of the Rocky mountains show that more than 227 important manufacturing concerns started up between April 1 and a week ago, by reason of which 53,000 employes have secured work. But the additional and significant fact is found in the report that wages of no fewer than 175,000 industrial employes have been advanced within this period an average of 10 per cent., of whom six-sevenths received the advance without striking.

CLASH IN THE AMALGAMATED.

Advocates of a $4.50 Rate Prevent an Agreement with Employers.

CLEVELAND, June 1.—The session of the Amalgamated Association yesterday was decidedly stormy. Although the recommendation of the scale committee that the puddling scale be filed at $4 was adopted early in the convention, a number of men who had been active in the agitation for a higher rate, and who were placed on the committee to confer with the manufacturers, broke over the traces and demanded a rate of $4.50.

This was flatly refused by the manufacturers, who asserted that the business improvement is yet incipient, and not such as to warrant the advance demanded. They intimated that if the association would decide on a $4 rate they would agree to sign a yearly scale, thus doing away with the time clause, by which it has been possible to terminate the scale at sixty days' notice, and which has always been very distasteful to the men.

It is a foregone conclusion that another conference will be held in Youngstown as soon as the convention adjourns. The finishers, who were also unable to accomplish anything, because of the action of the puddlers, are very angry at the action taken by the faction which fought for a higher rate, and some lively times are expected before the close of the convention.

Corbett and Fitz May Fight in Canada.

MONTREAL, June 1.—There is a possibility of the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight taking place in the immediate vicinity of Montreal. A syndicate, the names of the members of which are as yet a secret, has been formed for the purpose of offering a purse of $25,000 if the fight be pulled off here. They will guarantee that no one will interfere with it. Of course this means that the syndicate intend to buy out some municipal government of some small town near Montreal, but the interesting question may then arise whether the provincial government can interfere with municipal resolutions. An emissary of the syndicate left for the states yesterday.

Winner of the Oaks Stakes.

EPSOM DOWNS, June 1.—Sir James Miller's bay filly La Sagesse won the Oaks stakes of 4,500 sovereigns, run here yesterday. There were fifteen starters. The weather was beautiful and the attendance was large. A special train conveyed the Prince of Wales, the Duke of Cambridge, the Duke of Saxe-Coburg-Gotha and other members of the royal family to the course.

WORCESTER, Mass., June 1.—A boat containing Frederick Dame, Thomas F. O'Donnell and Misses Nellie White and Laura Bertram was overturned on Lake Quinsagamond, and the two latter were drowned. All the party were young people. The young ladies were residents of North Grafton, and had come to Worcester to visit relatives.

CLEVELAND FOR LIFE.

Remarkable Proposition of a Leading Southern Business Man.

RECEIVED WITH WILD APPLAUSE.

An Impressive Scene When a Speaker at the Southern Grocers' Association Declared the President's Salary Should be Doubled and He be Given a Life Tenure.

ATLANTA, June 1.—A sensation was created in the meeting of the Southern Wholesale Grocers' association when Captain J. H. Martin, of Memphis, the largest wholesale dealer in groceries in the south, exclaimed in the course of a speech: "Grover Cleveland, president of the United States, receives a salary of $50,000. He should be receiving one of $100,000, and be elected for life."

This statement was made while the officials' salaries were under discussion. Hardly had the words been uttered when cheer after cheer fairly shook the walls of the building and re-echoed to the street beyond. Time and again President Leigh rapped for order, but the shout still went up, while men waved their hands wildly, applauding a sentiment so expressive of their individual convictions.

The scene was an impressive one. It was several moments before business simmered down to its ordinary channel and even then men talked the happening over among themselves and paid little attention to the subsequent speeches.

A canvas of the members, who represent the leading cities of the south, showed them to be practically unanimous in support of President Cleveland's financial policy.

FRANCE AND CHINA.

M. Hanotaux Explains the Governments' Attitude Toward Japan.

PARIS, June 1.—In the senate yesterday M. Hanotaux, the minister of foreign affairs, made an important statement regarding the foreign policy of the government, in which he denied that French national interests were subordinated to the interests of other powers. He explained that the part which France took in the European representations to Japan was dictated by the interests of France, in view of her position in Indo-China and the protection she owed to French religious missions in China.

France, he added, could not see the independence of China menaced by a permanent Chinese occupation. If the empire of China fell or was rudely shaken, French interest would surely suffer from the consequent disorder and anarchy. Russia, he continued, held the same view regarding the necessity of maintaining the status quo in China, in her own interest, and Germany, likewise, had good reason for acting in unison with France and Russia.

Credit was due to Japan, in the opinion of M. Hanotaux, for the wisdom she displayed in accepting the friendly councils given her. The result of the common action has been to safeguard the existence and independence of China, and the government has every reason to hope for a favorable issue of the negotiations now proceeeding.

West Virginia Strikers Defeated.

BLUEFIELD, W. Va., June 1.—The four largest coal operators in West Virginia have begun mining with a good force. Sixty new men went to the fields yesterday, and the coal shipments from this point aggregate 215 cars. It is believed that the leaders, Lawless and Webb, are much disappointed at the action of the United miners' convention at Columbus in refusing to order a strike covering the entire regions now supplying West Virginia orders. The old men are returning to work, feeling that further resistance is useless. Most of the Virginia soldiers left Pocahontas yesterday, and the few remaining will leave in the course of ten days. The thirty-three operators who leased their mining lands are not attempting to resume. They hold that the rates offered by the Southwest Coal company at their mines for their coal shuts them off.

Changes in the Pension Bureau.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—The personnel of the pension bureau will be reorganized at the end of the fiscal year, as a result of the reduction of the appropriations of congress. About 100 changes will be made, and over a hundred of these will be dismissals, while about fifty employes will be transferred to other departments. The list is almost completed, and the changes will be made at once, to take effect July 1. A large number of changes will be made in other departments of the government.

ALBION, N. Y., June 1.—A man giving the name of Peter Oneth has been placed in jail here. The officials suspect him of being the murderer of Roy Culver, of Clyde, whose poisoned body was found in the river recently. Oneth left Syracuse about the time that Culver disappeared. Oneth was committed for vagrancy, the intention being to hold him to await further developments.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—United States Vice Consul General Springer at Havana has secured the release of another American citizen who was arrested in Cuba on suspicion of complicity in the rebellion. A BIG CYCLING SCANDAL

The "Great Chicago Road Race" Was a Monster Fraud.

COURSE NOT COVERED BY WINNERS

Men Who Were Awarded Time Prizes Said to Have Rested on the Way and to Have Never Reached the Turning Point in the Race.

CHICAGO, June 1.—A mammoth scandal has ended the career of the world's famous Chicago road race. The celebrated race as an institution has plunged from the pinnacle of rank as one of the greatest cycling events on the globe to a place much lower. Sworn statements made yesterday put nearly 10 per cent. of the participants in the so called "race" on record as contemptuous sneaks. How many of the remainder of the "racers" who go into the same class, is yet to be determined, while the race itself is left free from doubt in only one particular—that it was a wholesale fraud on a scale probably never before equaled in the history of cycling races, or for that matter in races of any kind. The result, it is generally conceded, will be to put a blot on the cycling fraternity everywhere as sportsmen and for years leave in bad odor every event fostered by Chicago cyclists.

The trouble, in brief, is that this year the race was not a straightaway, and that the 450 contestants, literally by dozens and scores, deliberately cut the course instead of going round the full turn at Evanston. It is claimed that only thirty-one of the first hundred to finish, among whom was the winner, Homer Fairmon, were noted as having passed the limit mark at Evanston and that no note was ever made of the other sixty-nine men at that point. The fellows not in the first hundred are supposed to have done even worse, and comparisons of bicycling, with Roby, Ind., and "winter racing" are common enough today for anybody.

W. F. Morgan, of the firm of Morgan & Wright, is greatly interested in the outcome of the investigation, for it was at his suggestion that it has been started.

"When I saw some of the figures that were recorded as the time in which the race was run," said Mr. Morgan, "I knew something was wrong. Fred Rau, one of our employes, to whom the second time prize was awarded, is credited with better time than either Bainbridge or Decardy, two scratch men that I know can ride Rau to death in five miles, especially when they pace one another, as they did on Thursday.

"When I saw Rau yesterday he admitted at once that he never rode over the course. He said he was taken sick half way out, and was lying on the grass a good part of the time, and that when he rode in he never claimed to have ridden the course. There are other men who claim to have made better time than either Bainbridge or Decardy who, I am willing to bet, would not be able to ride five miles with these men before they would be lying alongside the road."

Aside from the scandal in regard to the race as a whole, Referee Thomas F. Sheridan has his hands full receiving protests from scores of riders in the race against the awarding of prizes to Fairmon and Emerson, the first prize and time prize winners, respectively. It now looks as if neither of these men will be given the place which was assigned to him. However Fairmon may come out, it is almost certain that Emerson will be disqualified as time winner. All the testimony goes to show that Emerson did not ride the course. The time given Emerson was 52:14, and it is almost impossible to believe he made it in that fast time.

Steamer Sunk, Three Drowned.

ALPENA, Mich., June 1.—During a heavy fog the Canadian steamer Jack, bound down with lumber, collided with the steel steamer Norman, of the Menominne, opposite Middle Island. In less than three minutes the Norman sank in 300 feet of water. The cook, wheelsman and fireman were drowned. The barge Sicken was near by, and picked up the balance of the crew. The Norman, a steel propeller of 2,304 tons, was valued at $200,000 and insured for $175,000. The Jack is afloat, but badly damaged.

Charged with Fraudulent Banking.

PERRY, O. T., June 1.—Robert Kincaid is under arrest here, charged with swindling. He was president of a large bank at Mound City, Kan., which failed in 1893, and left depositors $150,000 short. Kincaid was charged with receiving money on deposit when he knew the bank was insolvent. He was president of a large bank at Oklahoma City, which failed at the same time.

A Leading Mormon Indicted.

SALT LAKE CITY, June 1.—John Beck, a prominent and wealthy Mormon, was indicted by the United States grand jury yesterday for unlawful cohabitation. Mr. Beck is president of Beck's Bullion Mining company. This is the first arrest since the manifesto against poygamy was issued by the church authorities four years ago.

Venezuela in Mourning for Gresham.

WASHINGTON, June 1.—In addition to other expressions of regret from nearly every nation, Sir Julian Pauncefote has notified Mr. Uhl that he has received a telegram from Earl Kimberly, desiring him to express to the president and the United States government the deep regret with which the British government has heard of Secretary Gresham's death. Mr. Bartleman, United States charge at Caracas, cables from that city that Venezuela renders special homage to the memory of Gresham, and has decreed three days public mourning.

A CHIP OF THE OLD BLOCK.

Like His Father, Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper Is a Great Canadian Statesman.

Sir Charles Hibbert Tupper, whose threatened resignation as minister of justice created such a stir in Canadian politics a few days ago, is one of the foremost statesmen in the Dominion. He was born in Nova Scotia in 1855 and is a descendant of Virginia tories who removed to Nova Scotia when the American colonies threw off the English yoke. He was brought up in an atmosphere of politics, and it is related that when he was a mere child he would get up on a chair or table before his father, Sir Charles Tupper, who was later high commissioner for Canada in England, and deliver an address on the affairs of the day. He was educated at McGill college, Montreal, and studied law at Harvard. Shortly before his examination at Harvard he broke his leg while wrestling, and his friends felt certain that his chances for winning his LL. B. were over for the time being. Young Tupper, however, did not allow such a trifle as a broken leg to stand in his way and carried on his studies in bed. When examination time came, his leg was still immovable as a log in its plaster cast and gave him great pain, but he took a ten days' examination in bed and secured his coveted degree.

He then returned to Nova Scotia and began the practice of law. In 1882, when he was only 37 years old, he was elected to parliament. He made his mark in the house of commons and married the daughter of Hon. James McDonald, chief justice of Nova Scotia. After five years of notable work in the commons, during which he demonstrated unmistakably that he was "a chip of the old block," he was made minister of marine and fisheries by Premier Sir John Macdonald. He was a prominent figure in the Bering sea arbitration, and in September, 1893, his yeoman service for Great Britain and Canada was rewarded by the queen, who knighted him. He is one of the youngest Canadians ever knighted, and with the exception of the late Sir John Macdonald is the youngest man who ever held the office of privy councilor. His elder brother, Stewart Tupper, is a lawyer in Winnipeg.

A Problem In Kansas Politics.

Here is a problem for some of our high school scholars to exercise their brains over. If it takes 10,000 early tomato plants to secure the nomination of Joe Kitchen for the office of county treasurer, and 5,000 celery plants to put Fred Bills on the Republican ticket for sheriff, how many sound catfish will I. L. Diesem have to scatter around among the people for a similar position for the office of register of deeds?—Garden City Sentinel.

Theory of a Broken Devil.

The story goes that when the devil was cast out of heaven he fell to earth and broke into several pieces. His head rolled into Spain, his heart into Italy, his stomach into Germany and his feet into France. This is why, says the legend, the Spaniards are so haughty, the Italians so amorous, the Germans so gluttonous and the French so fond of running after women.—Chips.

It is a great mistake to suppose that a simple tonic gives strength; it only stimulates the stomach to renewed action. To impart real strength, the blood must be purified and enriched, and this can only be done by such a standard alterative as Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

LONDON'S LITERARY LION.

Novelist Crockett, His Early Poverty and His Successful Literary Career.

The latest literary lion of London, S. R. Crockett, author of "The Raiders," "The Stickit Minister" and other delightful books of Scottish life, has fought his way to the front with rare pluck and persistence. Early in life his father died, and he was brought up by his grandparents. They were the strictest of Cameronians and considered Shakespeare and Scott very sinful writers. Young Crockett did not share their belief, however, and read the plays of the Bard of Avon and the novels of the great Scotchman on the sly. When not 6 years old, he walked many miles each day to and from the school at Lauriston. At that time he had associated so little with children that he hardly knew how a little girl looked. His grandparents were very poor, and when he became older he was compelled to earn his further education by teaching and writing. He lived on $2.16 a week, and when he needed new books did the work of a day laborer on Saturdays to earn the purchase money.

Despite his lack of advantages and his poverty, young Crockett was graduated from Edinburgh university, worked his way through Oxford and took degrees at Heidelberg and Neufchatel. He also traveled a great deal as tutor to "wards in chancery." He did a great deal of ordinary newspaper work on Edinburgh papers and finally became a clergyman. He married Miss Milner, daughter of George Milner, and in 1887 began preaching at Penicuik, a little town of 3,000 inhabitants.

His salary was very small, and in order to increase his income he wrote leaders for the Glasgow Christian Leader for $250 a year. One week in place of his usual leader he sent a short sketch describing a day in the life of Rev. James Pitbye. This sketch was so clever that it attracted wide attention and encouraged the young author to continue writing fiction. His first book was a book of poems, and his fellow countryman, Robert Louis Stevenson, was his literary godfather. His work soon became so much in demand that he ceased his ministerial duties and devoted himself entirely to literature. His novels and stories from the present time until 1900 are all engaged, and the man who was unknown two years ago is now on the top wave of successful authorship.

London is 12 miles broad and 17 miles long. Every year sees about 20 miles of new streets added to it.

Popularity of the Bicycle.

Some definite idea of the growth of the bicycle business in this country may be gained from the fact that whereas the total number of bicycle manufactories in the United States was but six in 1885, with an output of only 11,000 wheels, and in 1890 but 17, with an output of 40,000, at the present time there are 126 factories, which will make an aggregate of nearly or quite half a million machines this year. The increase in the last five years has been nothing short of marvelous, and it is probable that the next five years will see a very great advance upon the present product of these fast multiplying concerns. And now that bicycling is becoming so much more general than hitherto there is added reason why we should improve our country roads. If road reform was necessary five years ago, it is far more necessary and desirable now.—Providence Journal.

PENNSYLVANIA LEGISLATURE.

The House Sounds the Death Knell of Apportionment Bills.

HARRISBURG, June 1.—There will be no apportionment by this legislature. This was settled yesterday afternoon by the defeat in the house of the congressional, senatorial and legislative bills. The entire afternoon session was consumed in the consideration of these three measures. The test vote was on the question: Shall the house proceed to consideration of the legislative bill? The motion was carried by a vote of 85 to 83, nineteen Democrats voting with the oppenents of the bill. The measure was then voted down by 78 yeas to 85 nays. The senatorial and congressional apportionment bills were called up in turn and defeated by practically the same vote. The defeat of these measures is regarded as a victory of the friends of Senator Quay.

The bill appropriating $10,000 for the removal of the Eastern penitentiary provoked much discussion, but it passed finally with only four dissenting votes.

The first bill taken up at the morning was the general appropriation measure. It carries a total expenditure of $15,500,000, the same as appropriated two years ago. The schools are given $11,000,000. The bill was read the second time and then sent back to committee for amendment. A number of appropriation bills passed finally.

The appellate court bill passed finally in the house last night by a vote of 140 to 20. Mr. Merrick, the legal oracle of the farmers, made a strong fight against the measure, but was beaten at every turn.

Another Harmony Dinner.

NEW YORK, June 1.—Another big dinner was given last night. General Horace Porter was the host, and he entertained his friends at his residence. General Porters' guests were Governor McKinley, Cornelius N. Bliss, Elihu Root, Commissioner Frederick D. Grant, W. Rhinelander Stewart, Commissioner Brookfield, ex-Senator Warner Miller, General Samuel Thomas, Mayor William L. Strong, Commissioner Theodore Roosevelt, Chauncey M. Depew, General A. G. McCook, Abner McKinley, Cornelius Vanderbilt and Charles C. Beaman. Ex-President Harrison was invited, but sent word that he could not attend.

Seriously Injured by a Horse.

STOCKTON, N. J., June 1.—While a little daughter of Mr. William Mann, of South Rosedale, was chasing chickens from the stable of her father's residence a horse became frightened and in its plunges knocked the little one down. The child's mother rushed from the house, and in attempting to rescue her daughter she, too, was knocked down. Neighbors rescued her, but not until her leg had been so badly broken and crushed that Dr. Martindale, who was called to attend the case, fears that amputation may be necessary. The child escaped injury.

More Chicago Heat Prostrations.

CHICAGO, June 1.—Thursday was the hottest day Chicago has ever known in the month of May, but yesterday surpassed it. The mercury at 2 o'clock stood at 95 in the shade, and this temperature was maintained until after the sun had gone down. A large number of prostrations were reported, among them being: Alfred Kallen, John Walsh, laborer, Charles Storch, laborer; Thomas Keran, laborer; D. Wirmenski, laborer; W. F. Chitty and Bennett Jones; Mrs. Mary Arndt, aged 40, died within an hour. The condition of the first five is serious.

Jockey Killed in a Race.

WASHINGTON, June 1. — Several accidents occurred in the last race at the St. Asaph track yesterday. Dick Corbley, a white jockey who was riding Kirkover, was killed. The horse fell and two horses immediately behind fell over Corbley's horse. The boy probably struck one of the fence rails, as an ugly gash had been cut in his head and his neck was broken. Charlie R. was one of the horses that fell on Kirkover, and Jockey McLaughlin had his collar bone broken. The horse Punch fell and was afterward destroyed.

Four Feet of Snow in Colorado.

DENVER, June 1.—The storms in Colorado on Thursday were the worst known for years. The entire country has been soaked with a heavy rain. There is four feet of snow at Dillon, a mining camp in the mountains. Water is so deep in the streets of Holyoke that a rowboat has made trips up and down the streets. Small lakes have been formed near Akron, and the streams are swollen. The storm means millions to the farmers, coming at a most oppertune time.

New York's Heat Victims.

NEW YORK, June 1.—The World publishes a list of those who have suffered most severely from the heat. Two persons have perished already. More than a score of persons are ill, and some of them may die from the effects of the recent hot weather. Following are the persons already dead: Dennis Bates, 2 months old, died suddenly from effects of heat at his parents' home; Alfred Taylor, 13 years old, sunstruck at noon, died before medical aid arrived.

Latest from the Colima Wreck.

COLIMA, Mexico, June 1.—Six survivors of the steamer Colima have reached here. They are John Thornton and K. E. Chilberg, of Seattle, cabin passengers; Peters and Vindor, and Seamen Gonzales and Johnston. They are said to have reached shore on a raft, and another raft with five men is reported from San Telmo. The survivors state that the women and children were all in the state rooms, and all went down with the steamer. The survivors also reported that Purser Walfer was seen in a well manned boat pulling away from the sinking steamer towards shore. It is supposed that this boat is still afloat.

The Colima is a complete loss unless some of its cargo can be recovered by divers, which will probably be attempted.

On Sunday.

On Sunday from my window seat
I gaze across the shady street
With many fond emotions
Until at last Elsie comes out,
With downcast eyes and mien devout,
And goes to her devotions.

This is my one unanswered prayer—
That you, who love to labor
In Christian work, may understand
And forthwith heed the stern command
That bids you love your neighbor."

A GOOD RECORD.

Derangements of the kidneys and liver lead to impoverishment of the blood, from which spring many troublous maladies that "never get well of themselves." If you have any such affections you cannot too speedily seek the aid of Dr. Kennedy's Favorite Remedy. Its efficacy has been demonstrated by thousands of cures performed in the practice of its discoverer long before it was put forward as a proprietary medicine. No more deservedly popular medicine was ever offered to the public and none has achieved, by its merit, greater popularity.

THE PRESIDENT COMING TO MIDDLETOWN.

The Sick May Receive Medical Services Free of Charge.

The President and members of the European and American Staff of German, English, Irish, Scandinavian and American Doctors of New York city will be at the Russell House, Middletown, on one day only. The sick and afflicted may consult them without charge during their stay.

If you are incurable they will tell you; therefore invalids must not take offence if they are rejected, as no case will be accepted unless there is a moral certainty of a cure being effected. These Doctors are graduates of the best universities of Europe and America; they are of the highest standing in the medical profession and have had unlimited experience in the treatment of all Chronic Diseases and Deformities. As the latest methods, instruments and appliances of the various schools of both the Old and the New World are familiar to and at the command of this staff of doctors, it is reasonable to believe that in ninety cases out of every hundred a cure can be effected, even when the patients have been given up as incurable by doctors who have had less experience. Do not be discouraged because your doctor cannot give you relief, or even if he tells you that you cannot get well, for it matters not what your disease may be, you can consult the doctors free, and, if curable, they will treat you; if incurable, they will give you such advice as will tend to prolong life and afford you the greatest relief.

The doctor visits Middletown one day each month. Will be at 21 Broom street, Port Jervis, Wednesday, June 5th. Office hours from 10:30 a. m. to 6 p. m.

SATURDAY, JUNE 1, 1895.

The gold reserve is now $99,048,872, which is higher than it has been at any time since Dec, 15th, 1894. The reserve has been increasing ever since the bond syndicate made its first payment.

Laws requiring the Sunday closing of saloons have been on the statute books for years but no one who wanted a drink and had the price ever went dry. Wonder if the new law requiring the Sunday closing of barber shops will compel anyone with the price of a shave to go unshaven.

Henry Clews, in his Financial Review, says that the most encouraging feature of the business situation is the confidence shown by European investors in American securities. Within three months some $130,000,000 of our bonds and stocks have been placed in the London and continental markets, and within the past week $5,000,000 of railroad bonds and $2,000,000 of the obligations of an electrical corporation have been negotiated in London.

The General Electric Company has submitted to the Manhattan Railway Company, plans and estimates of the cost of substituting electricity as a motive power on its several lines. It is understood that the figures named for the entire system are about $3,000,000, and it is guaranteed that the work will be done so that there will be no interruption of traffic. No contract has been made as yet, but there is little doubt that the change has been decided on, the successful use of electricity on the Metropolitan elevated railway in Chicago, having greatly impressed the officers of the Manhattan company with the economy and desirability of electric motive power.

The Mercer county, N. J., grand jury, which was expected to find indictments against Democrats charged with frauds against the State government, will do nothing. The first case presented to it was a fracas between two women in a disorderly house in Trenton and an indictment was promptly found. It was subsequently learned that some prominent Republican Senators and Assemblymen were in the house at the time and that a trial of the case would involve the exposure of their names The Republicans on the grand jury at once lost all interest in prosecuting Democratic wrongdoers and their only anxiety is to save Republican leaders from the consequence of their vice and lewdness.

Many Republican newspapers, in their endeavors to account for the increased tax rate, are publishing an article in which they give as one reason for the increase "the deficit caused by the under-estimate of the Democratic State Controller, last year." This is a bare-faced lie. The Controller, last year, was not a Democrat, but the same Controller now in office, James A. Roberts, Republican, who was elected in 1893, and who took office Jan. 1st, 1894 Another reason given for the increase is "deferred appropriations of last year." Last year's Legislature was Republican in both its branches, and responsibility for deferring appropriations rests therefore on the Republican party. When such up and down lying and shameless quibbling are necessary the discredited Legislature has certainly left the Republican party in a very bad way.

Grandfather's Hat has been in high luck this week. The insatiable Forsker transferred Major William McKinley to the list of unavailables on Tuesday, and Thursday Gov. Morton had a—well, Mr. Blaine had one in '76, and it put him back eight years. —New York Times.

THE HYGIENE OF THE MOUTH

In a recent lecture before the Wistar Biological Association, entitled "The Bacterio-Pathology of the mouth, and its significance in its relation to general diseases' Prof W D. Miller, of Berlin, stated that thirty two distinct species of germs has been found in the mouth and that these germs give rise to various diseases.

"Want of space" prevents us from giving Prof. Miller's lecture in full, but the practical deduction is that increased care should be devoted to keeping the mouth perfectly healthy. This will be one of the features of "preventive medicine" the dawn of which is evidently approaching. The logical course for those who attach importance to such things is to use our Ivory Tooth Wash frequently and liberally It is antiseptic, purifying and cleansing in its effect, very pleasant to use and leaves a clean taste in the mouth whitens the teeth and sweetens the breath. We make it and we vouch for it as an article of merit. 25 cents a bottle

STOPPED BY A HIGHWAYMAN.

Miss Marie Louise Gumaer Has an Adventure, Wednesday Evening.

Miss Marie Louise Gumaer, of Guymard, while driving from Port Jervis to her home, Wednesday evening, was held up by a highwayman in a lonely piece of woods through which the road runs. Miss Gumaer gave the man a cut across the face with the whip, and was soon out of sight.

A NEW SECRET SOCIETY.

A Council of the National Union to be Organized Here.

Middletown is to have a new secret society,—a council of the National Union a patriotic, social and benovelent order. It is organized upon the general plan of the other mutual benefit societies, except that its assessments are gradually increased each year so as to place all members on an equal footing. Mr. G H. Black, of this city, has been a member of the order for several years and it is through his instrumentality that a council is being organized here.

ICED THE COLD FISH.

They Were Perishing in the Warm Water in Thrall Park Fountain.

The Gold fish brought to this city, yesterday, were put in the fountain in Thrall Park in which there was only a small quantity of water and which of course was very warm. It was not a great while until some one noticed that the fish were floating on their sides in the water, and some one notified the Par Commissioners who at once placed 1,000 pounds of ice in the basin and turned on the water. The fish revived and this morning appeared to have recovered from their warm bath. Hereafter they will be supplied with fresh water in hot weather.

Rumors Concerning Susquehanna and Western.

A report was current in Wall street, yesterday, that the recent decline in the price of Susquehanna and Western stock was due to a prospective default in the interest on the bonds of the Wilkesbarre and Eastern, part of the Susquehanna system, due today. The report was promptly denied by the officials of the Susquehanna and Western, and since the stock, to-day, shows only a fractional decline from yesterday's quotations, it is not likely that default was made.

To Remove to Chicago.

Mrs. Nancy Carmichael and son, B. Franklin, and daughters Emma and Lorena, will leave town on Monday, for Chicago, where they will make their future home. They have been life long residents of this place. Mrs. Carmichael has seen Middletown grow from a very small village to a prosperous city. Her husband, the late Calvin Carmichael, built the Erie road from Goshen to Middletown, and, it is said, was entitled to several thousand dollars more than he ever received.

V. Sinsabaugh.

MR. GUNTHER'S BIG BUFFALO.

Measurements of the Head and Skin Made for a Denver Man.

A few days ago, the ARGUS received a letter from Mr. S. D. Decker, of Denver, Col., who had read in this paper a mention of Mr. Jacob Gunther's big buffalo head, which took the first prize at the sportsman's exhibition in New York, asking for a measurement of the head.

The letter was turned over to Mr. Gunther, who decided to have Mr. Benj. Bacheller, the taxidermist, make the measurements. This Mr. Bacheller did, to-day. The measurements were made close to the skin, and as the hair is several inches long, the head is much larger in appearance than these measurements, which are as follows:

From nose over forehead to shield, fifty-three inches; from nose to top of head, twenty-eight and three-quarter inches; around head and throat, seventy-seven inches; nose to base of horn, twenty-two inches; spread of horns outside, thirty-eight and one-half inches; inside, thirty-four and three-quarter inches; top of skull from base of horns, thirty-three inches; around base of horns, fourteen inches; length of horns, twenty-one inches; nose to eye, twenty-two inches.

The skin of the animal, which Mr. Gunther also has in his possession, measures as follows:

From end of the short tail to shoulder, ten feet three inches; around the loins, eight feet seven inches; from toe to toe in front, ten feet three inches; from toe to toe behind, ten feet eight inches.

The measurements made by Mr. Bacheller will be forwarded to Mr. Decker.

VERY GOOD NEWSPAPER WORK.

"Chauncey's Love Feast" Done In Rhyme by Mr. John W. Low.

Mr. John W. Low, who is doing some very clever work on the New York Evening Sun, did the Depew dinner, or "Chauncey's Love Feast," in rhyme, making of it a "harmonious" comic opera, which fairly bristles with telling hits on the ambitious statesmen who occupied seats at the 'Prince of Peaches'" festive board. Taken all in all, Mr. Low's burlesque of the harmony banquet is the best piece of work of its kind that has been published in any of the New York papers in a very long time.

AN ELECTRIC ROAD COMPLETED.

First Car From Newburgh to Walden.

The first car over the Newburgh and Walden electric road made the trip, Wednesday afternoon, from Newburgh to East Walden, a point about a mile east of the village. At this point, a few hours more of work at track laying was necessary to complete the line and the car returned to Newburgh. There was on board a large party of city officials and newspaper men. Upon their return the party was banqueted at the Palatine hotel. It is expected that cars will run to Walden regularly after to-day.

In Honor of Her Birthday Anniversary.

Miss Ina Weller entertained the Trilby Whist Club at her home on North street, last evening, in honor of her birthday anniversary.

The evening was spent in playing whist. There were four tables. The gentleman's prize was won by Mr. William Fredericks; Misses Maud Wheeler and Mabel Lanphier were a tie and cut the cards for the ladies' prize, Miss Wheeler being the winner.

The young hostess served refreshments after the close of the games.

A Costly Experience.

The Confirmation at St. James's Church —Vocal Society Notes—Personal Mention—A Pleasant Social Event—Some Thoughts by the Way.

From a Special Correspondent.

—Bishop Coleman, of the diocese of Delaware, confirmed a class of fourteen people at St. James's Church, Tuesday afternoon. Several members of the class were from Chester, in which village Rev. Mr. Maison has been holding services on Sunday afternoon, for several months.

—A final rehearsal of Rossin's "Stabat Mater" will be held at Music Hall, next Wednesday afternoon, at 4 o'clock. On Thursday afternoon, at 2 o'clock, will be held a last rehearsal of "Judas Maccabæus."

—Mrs. Edward Sayer, of Walden, is the guest of Mr. Wm. Sayer, at his home in this village.

—The last meeting, for this season, of the Ladies' Whist Club, was held, yesterday afternoon, at the pleasant home of Colonel Burt, near this village. Prizes were awarded to Miss Sally Sayer, Mrs. Burt, Mrs. Samuel Casey and Mrs. Aaron Wallace.

—While watching the procession, Decoration Day, it occurred to the writer that, among the many hopes and aspirations for the future that that she had heard expressed by various small boys, she had never heard one say that when he grew up he was going to be a drum major, and it seemed to her that if ever she were a small boy, which is something she thinks very unlikely, it would occur to her that it was the most enviable lot in life. There is such a magnificent superiority and repose of manner about a drum major. It must do any one good to feel like that, even once in a life time. He is so imposing, and his clothes are so beautiful that it is a wonder the young of his own sex are not all seized with a desire to go and do likewise.

—The minister, who, when he addressed a bicycle club, the other day, had one of their machines fastened to either side of his pulpit, ought, if he wished to be entirely consistent, when he addressed sinners, place a couple of samples in an equally conspicuous position. To be sure, it might interfere with his popularity if he happened to have any. We are quite ready to confess ourselves miserable sinners once a week, when we do it in plenty of good company, but it might perhaps be a rather delicate matter for a minister to ask one or two individuals every seven days to, literally, stand by him in order to point his moral and adorn his tale.

THE COUNTY FAIR.

A Drama of Rural Life in New England

Lovers of the country and country life will be given an opportunity for enjoyment in the production of the County Fair, at the Casino, Monday evening next. The County Fair's great success throughout the land is familiar to playgoers. It is essentially a story of the country and country folk. It is full of laughable episodes and presents characters whose prototypes may be seen at any time in farm lands of New England. A real horse race and other realistic items will be well staged, and the lively husking bee, with all its singing and dancing, is promised as features.

JUSTICE IN MONACO.

I wish I had leisure to speak at length of this astonishing state, smaller than a French village, but where one finds an absolute sovereign, bishops, an army of Jesuits and divinity students more numerous than that of the prince, an artillery the ordnance of which is almost rifled, an etiquette more elaborate than that of the late Louis XIV, principles of government more despotic than those of William of Prussia, and, in addition to all this, a magnificent toleration for the vices of humanity.

On the other hand, let us salute this virtuous peacefully disposed king, who, fearing neither invasions nor revolutions, rules tranquilly over his happy little people in the midst of a court ceremonial, in which is preserved intact the tradition of four reverences, 26 hand kissings and all the forms observed in a bygone era in the presence of great rulers.

This monarch, above everything, is neither bloodthirsty nor revengeful, and when he banishes—for he does banish—the sentence is carried out with infinite tact.

Is it necessary to produce proofs of this?

A pigheaded gambler, after a day of bad luck, insulted the sovereign. He was expelled from the country by royal decree.

For a month he roamed around the forbidden paradise, fearing the flaming sword of the archangel in the shape of a gendarme's saber. Finally he one day plucked up courage, crossed the frontier, gained in 30 seconds the heart of the country and entered the Casino. But suddenly an official stopped him.

"Were you not banished, monsieur?"

"Certainly I was, but I am going back by the next train."

"Oh, in that case it is all right. You can enter, monsieur."

And every week he returned, and on each occasion the same official put to him the same question, which he answered in the same fashion.

But a few years ago a serious and entirely novel case arose in the principality.

A murder had been committed.

A man, a native of Monaco, not one of the transient strangers of whom one meets legions, but a married man, in a moment of passion had killed his wife.

He had killed her without reason, without any extenuating circumstances. This opinion was unanimous throughout the whole principality.

The supreme court met to judge this exceptional case, for never before had murder been committed, and the wretch was condemned to death.

The outraged sovereign signed the death warrant.

It only remained to execute the criminal. But here a difficulty presented itself. The country possessed neither executioner nor guillotine.

What was to be done? On the advice of the foreign minister, the prince entered into negotiations with the French government to obtain the loan of a remover of heads and his apparatus.

Long deliberations in the ministerial office at Paris. Finally they replied and forwarded a minute of expenses for moving the guillotine and for the services of the expert. The total was 16,000 francs

His majesty of Monaco thought that the affair was going to cost him pretty dear; the murderer assuredly was not worth so much money. Sixteen thousand francs for the neck of a rascal! The devil!

He then preferred the same request to the Italian government A king, a brother in royalty, would doubtless not prove such a hard bargainer as a republic.

The Italian government sent a minute of expenses which amounted to 12,000 francs

Twelve thousand francs! Why, it would be necessary to impose a new tax, a tax of 2 francs a head on the inhabitants. That would be enough to stir up unknown troubles in the state.

He contemplated decapitating the ruffian by an ordinary soldier. But the general, on being consulted, was doubtful whether any of his men had had sufficient sword practice to acquit themselves satisfactorily of a task demanding great experience in handling the weapon.

So the prince again convened the supreme court and submitted to them this embarrassing position of affairs.

The court sat a long time without discovering any practical solution. At last the president suggested commuting the death sentence into one of imprisonment for life, and the suggestion was adopted.

But they had no prison. It was necessary to improvise one. A jailer was also commissioned who took charge of the prisoner.

For six months everything went well. The convict slept all day on a mattress in his hut, and his guard did the same on a chair just inside the door facing the passersby

But the prince is economical—it is his least fault—and requires the details of the smallest expenditures incurred throughout his dominions. Among these were placed before him the items of the disbursements relating to the creation of a new office, the maintenance of the prison, prisoner and jailer. The outlay on the last was a heavy drain on the royal purse.

His face lengthened visibly, and when he considered it might last forever, for the condemned man was still young, he

HEART DISEASE, like many other ailments when they have taken hold of the system, never gets better of its own accord, but Constantly grows worse. There are thousands who know they have a defective heart, but will not admit the fact. They don't want their friends to worry, and Don't know what to take for it, as they have been told time and again that heart disease was incurable. Such was the case of Mr. Silas Farley of Dyesville, Ohio who writes June 19, 1894, as follows:

"I had heart disease for 23 years, my heart hurting me almost continually. The first 15 years I doctored all the time, trying several physicians and remedies, until my last doctor told me it was only a question of time as I could not be cured. I gradually grew worse, very weak, and completely discouraged, until I lived, propped half up in bed, because I couldn't lie down nor sit up. Thinking my time had come I told my family what I wanted done when I was gone. But on the first day of March on the recommendation of Mrs. Fannie Jones, of Anderson, Ind., I commenced taking Dr. Miles' New Cure for the Heart and wonderful to tell, in ten days I was working at light work and on March 19 commenced framing a barn, which is heavy work, and I hav'nt lost a day since. I am 56 years old, 6 ft. 4½ inches and weigh 250lbs. I believe I am fully cured; and I am now only anxious that everyone shall know of your wonderful remedies."

Dyesville, Ohio. SILAS FARLEY.

How They Got Rich.

When I talk to a man who has made a fortune by advertising, I wonder that anybody who has anything to sell does not go and do likewise. One man told me a day or two ago that his concern, with a nominal capital of $100,000, only $30,000 of which was paid in, has divided in a single year among three partners profits to the amount of $750,000, and that exclusive of salaries of $50,000 and $25,000 drawn by two members of the firm. Ten or twelve years ago this man was a drug clerk on a small salary in a western town and is now one of the millionaires of New York. "Without advertising I might have made a living," he said, "but it was advertising that made me rich, and advertising a very simple commodity at that."

Another man, who bears similar testimony, tells me that his concern, which began by investing $10,000 a year in advertising, increased the amount every year according to their increase of business, and this year expects to spend $1,000,000. Still another, who confined himself entirely to the newspapers and magazines in the exploitation of his specialty, never having touched a dead wall, a fence or the broad side of a barn with poster or paintbrush, and never employing a salesman, has a cool million salted down in real estate, keeps his yacht and spends most of the year abroad in luxurious living.

Many other men of my acquaintance resting in ease and wealth have told me stories of their own experience with the same moral. Some day I am going to print these stories and give the names of the heroes.—Major Handy in Chicago Times-Herald.

Rebecca Wilkinson, of Brownsvalley, Ind., says: "I have been in a distressed condition for three years from nervousness, weakness of the stomach, dyspepsia and indigestion until my health was gone. I had been doctoring constantly with no relief. I bought one bottle of South American Nervine, which did me more good than any $50 worth of doctoring I ever did in my life. I would advise every weakly person to use this valuable and lovely medicine; a few bottles of it have cured me completely. I consider it the grandest medicine in the world." Warranted the most wonderful stomach and nerve cure ever known. Sold by J. E. Mills, Middletown, N. Y.

CASTORIA

for Infants and Children.

MOTHERS, Do You Know that Paregoric, Bateman's Drops, Godfrey's Cordial, many so-called Soothing Syrups, and most remedies for children are composed of opium or morphine?

Do You Know that opium and morphine are stupefying narcotic poisons?

Do You Know that in most countries druggists are not permitted to sell narcotics without labeling them poisons?

Do You Know that you should not permit any medicine to be given your child unless you or your physician knew of what it is composed?

Do You Know that Castoria is a purely vegetable preparation, and that a list of its ingredients is published with every bottle?

Do You Know that Castoria is the prescription of the famous Dr. Samuel Pitcher That it has been in use for nearly thirty years, and that more Castoria is now sold than of all other remedies for children combined?

Do You Know that the Patent Office Department of the United States, and of other countries, have issued exclusive right to Dr. Pitcher and his assigns to use the word "Castoria" and its formula, and that to imitate them is a state prison offense?

Do You Know that one of the reasons for granting this government protection was because Castoria had been proven to be absolutely harmless?

Do You Know that 35 average doses of Castoria are furnished for 35 cents, or one cent a dose?

Do You Know that when possessed of this perfect preparation, your children may be kept well, and that you may have unbroken rest?

Well, these things are worth knowing. They are facts.

It is Injurious To Stop Suddenly

And don't be imposed upon by buying a remedy that requires you to do so, as it is nothing more than a substitute. In the sudden stoppage of the use of tobacco you must have some stimulant, and in most all cases, the effect of the stimulant, be it opium, morphine, or other opiates, leaves a far worse habit contracted. Ask your druggist about "BACO-CURO." It is purely vegetable. You do not have to stop using tobacco with "BACO-CURO." It will notify you when to stop and your desire for tobacco will cease. Your system will be as free from nicotine as the day before you took your first chew or smoke. An ironclad written guarantee to absolutely cure the tobacco habit in all its forms, or money refunded.

Dear Sirs—I have been a tobacco fiend for many years, and during the past two years have smoked fifteen to twenty cigars regularly every day. My whole nervous system became affected, until my physician told me I must give up the use of tobacco for the time being at least. I tried the so-called "Keeley Cure," "No-To-Bac," and various other remedies, but without success, until I accidentally learned of your "Baco-Curo." Three weeks ago to-day I commenced using your preparation, and to-day I consider myself completely cured; I am in perfect health, and the horrible craving for tobacco, which every inveterate smoker fully appreciates, has completely left me. I consider your "Baco-Curo" simply wonderful, and can fully recommend it.

Yours very truly, C. W. HORNICK.

Dear Sirs—I have been a tobacco fiend for thirty-three years, and during the past two years have used chewing tobacco very extensively. My nervous system being affected considerable. I have often tried to give up the use of tobacco, but always failed, until I bought three boxes of your "Baco-Curo." I used tobacco at the same time while taking "Baco-Curo," and after a week I lost the appetite for tobacco—smoking or chewing. I am enjoying better health, and consider your "Baco-Curo" the safest, most harmless and reliable remedy for to break the tobacco habit.

Yours truly, JOHN RODDEN,

Gentlemen—Last summer I furnished Mr James Reid, of the town of Burnside, Trempealeau Co., with three boxes of your "Baco-Curo." He had chewed tobacco for over forty years and the last year used over sixty-five pounds. He commenced using "Baco-Curo" and one box did not have the effect, when he had used about one-half of the second box, he began to lose his taste for tobacco, and when he had used one-half of the third box he had lost all his appetite for it, and is now entirely cured.

Yours truly, J. C. TAYLOR, Druggist.

TO WHOM IT MAY CONCERN.

This is to certify that I, William S. Sawyer of Atlantic, County of Cass, State of Iowa, having been an inveterate smoker of tobacco, bought three boxes of "Baco-Curo" Dec. 21, 1894. Began taking same according to directions and can say that I am completely cured of the tobacco habit. "Baco-Curo" is simply wonderful and I recommend it to all who are slaves to the tobacco habit and wish to be cured. I am in perfect health and have not felt so well in years. That terrible craving, which every tobacco user has more or less, has completely disappeared and I feel like a new man. Hoping that this may do some one good and lead them to try this wonderful remedy, "Baco-Curo," I remain, Yours truly,

WM. S. SAWYER, Atlantic, Iowa.

Clayton, Nevada Co., Ark., Jan. 28, 1 95

Eureka Chemical & Mfg. Co., La Crosse, Wis.

Gentlemen—For forty years I used tobacco in all its forms. For twenty-five years of that time I was a great sufferer from general debility and heart disease. For fifteen years I tried to quit, but couldn't. I took various remedies, among others "No-To-Bac," "The Indian Tobacco Antidote," "Double Chloride of Gold," etc., etc., but none of them did me the least bit of good. Finally, however, I purchased a box of your "Baco-Curo" and it has entirely cured me of the habit in all its forms, and I have increased thirty pounds in weight and am relieved from all the numerous aches and pains of body and mind. I could write a quire of paper upon my changed feelings and condition.

Yours respectfully, P. H MARBURY,
Pastor C. P. Church, Clayton, Ark.

WHAT MR. KRAEMER SAYS OF "BACO-CURO."

ATLANTIC, Iowa, Feb 4, 1895.

This is to certify that I, F. D. Kraemer, of Atlantic, Iowa, was an inveterate smoker of cigarettes for more than two years.

About eight weeks ago I bought three boxes of "Baco-Curo" I began taking it according to directions, and after taking one and one-half boxes, all the desire for cigarettes left me, and I have had no desire since.

I can heartily recommend "Baco-Curo" to all who are slaves to the cigarette habit or tobacco habit in any form, and are in search of a cure. I had become so under the influence of cigarettes, I could not remember anything; could not study, unless under the influence of the drug, which is death in the end, if kept up.

Cigarettes are sapping the lives out of more boys and young men to-day, than anything that is known to the world. Boys, before it is too late get some of this remedy that killed the craving for cigarettes in me and save your young life. Restore yourself to manhood. You will feel as though you had escaped an awful doom, and you have, when cured by "Baco-Curo," for you feel like a new being. I never felt better in all my life than at this present writing. I did not know what was the matter with me, until informed by the agent. He told me what was the reason I could not do anything unless under the influence of the death-dealing poison found in cigarettes. I did not believe him at first, until he explained the action on the system. Then I bought the goods and thank God and all concerned. I am a sound person to-day. Hoping that this may reach the unfortunate cigarette smoker, I remain, Yours respectfully,

F. D. KRAEMER.

A MODERN INSTANCE.

Painful Story of a Man Who Bought a Wheel.

He was old enough to know better, but it's still true that there's no fool like an old fool. After a week of practice in the riding school, after learning to mount and dismount and to turn to the left and the right, he got his wheel, and with an experienced rider as escort made a lame but entirely successful debut on the pavement. He went home that night a little lame, but holding his head pretty high for a head that was full of new wheels.

"I'm going to use the bicycle entirely going to and from the office," he announced to his amiably skeptical wife. "It will save at least $1 a week on car fare. Besides I need the exercise. I think it will be good for my appetite."

"So it will cost $1 a week more to board you?" laughed madam. Women are so illogical and malapropos.

"Never you mind. I'm going to open a wheel account with myself, and in a month I'll show you figures that will open your eyes."

It was just a week later, as he lay in a darkened room, with a bandage around his head and splints on his arm, that the wife opened a memorandum book and read:

Friday.—Rode down town and home again on back streets to avoid crowd. Saved 10 cents. This is great.

Saturday.—Tried Main street this morning. Never realized before how busy the street is. Awfully full of teams and people. Looked ahead and saw heavy coal wagon coming. Tried to give it a wide berth, but the more I tried the more I couldn't. Ran into its front wheel and broke handle bar. Think it must have been loaded with magnetic iron ore, it pulled me in so. Driver asked me if I was loaded, an whar in 'ell I was tryin to cut 'im down for. "Why don't you use a baby carriage?" he jeered. These low people don't understand athletics.

Sunday.—Can't get my wheel repaired until Monday. Just as well. I couldn't sit on it if I had it. Must get saddle changed. Mine looks all right, but feels as if it were all edge. Curious effect of yesterday's collision. I can't walk past people without hitting them. Kept stepping off the sidewalk all the way to church and bumped up against everybody. Stepped on three dresses, and going down the aisle late hit the fellow with the contribution box. Struck him amidships, bow on, and they are looking under the pews yet for the silver. I can't keep off of people. Must find a 40 acre lot tomorrow and practice walking.

Monday.—Thought I was O. K. again. Got my wheel and was coming up the ave. in great shape. Two ladies on sidewalk; heard one of 'em say, "There, that's the way I like to see a man ride; he sits up straight like a gentleman." Looked around and tried to raise my hat; bicycle fell over and I put my Trilby smash through front wheel. Repair shop promises wheel tomorrow. Hope those ladies won't know me next time I look like a gentleman.

The entries stopped here, so the wife added:

"Tuesday.—Went out to park, where the roadway wasn't crowded. Met a lady on a wheel. I turned out and she turned in"—

"What are you doing there so still?" said the remains in the bed.

"Trying to bring your bicycle economy account up to date, dear."

"Just say I'd rather meet a drove of Texas steers, all long horned and mad, than a woman on a wheel. The streets are not wide enough for me and any woman that ever held a handle bar. Just say that the way to meet a woman rider is to get over into the fields as soon as you sight her."

"Shall I put down the expenses in the case?"

"Expense be bl— See here; you write a letter to one of the papers and get the address of the secretary of the antibicycle league. I'm going to join when the bone sets."

"Never mind, dear; get another wheel and economize some more. And—it isn't so bad, you know; your life's insured."—Buffalo Express.

JIM.

The Man With a Reputation to Sustain Holds His Own.

When the man with a reputation to sustain sauntered over to the small table at the far end of the clubroom, he found that the talk had drifted around to the subject of training, and he listened with profound interest to several stories, all of which went to show what persistent effort could do in any particular direction. He was a good listener, and his habit of invariably giving every one else a chance before he entered the argument always gave him an immense advantage and enabled him to sustain his well earned reputation.

"Yes," he said meditatively, when Bobbie Van Sickle had told the story of the Siberian prisoner who had trained a fly to carry messages to another cell, "it's wonderful what a little patience will do when properly applied. I remember when I was out in 'Frisco, two years ago, I went down in the Chinese quarter and got some of the curious goldfish they sell there. Had them put in a small glass aquarium and started on east with them. Only the largest one remained when I arrived, the rest having died on the way. But he was a remarkable fish. I used to call him Jim, and it wasn't long before we became very much attached to each other. I had a habit of putting my hand in the water and taking hold of Jim, giving him a gentle squeeze. One day I noticed that his skin just where my fingers had pressed it was a trifle loose. You've seen the limber skinned man, haven't you?"

The other members nodded.

"Well," said the man with a reputation to sustain, "I felt instinctively from the start that Jim was destined to be a limber skinned fish. I knew that he also relished the idea himself, from the way he remained passive when I took hold of him. Every day I used to knead that fish with my fingers. Little by little his skin got loose. It got so after awhile that I could take a pinch of his skin and pull it away from the rest of him without any trouble at all. Jim became in my hands just like a rubber bag. It only goes to show what a little persistence will do. I wish I had him with me today. I would like to show him to you."

"But you can't carry a fish around in your pocket, don't you know," said Bobbie Van Sickle. "That's a little more than any one could expect."

"But I carry Jim," said the man with a reputation to sustain, as he lit a fresh cigar and looked thoughtfully into the faces of his hearers. "I had him carefully prepared and he makes one of the most unique and elastic tobacco pouches you ever saw."—New York World.

How He Won.

"False one!" he hissed.

The beautiful blue eyes gazed steadily into his. "Meaning me?" asked the owner of the azure orbs.

"You bet. Last Christmas the candy I bought for you came to $7.43. Valentine's day I sent you $18 worth of hothouse roses. In March I blew in $11 for theater tickets. And now comes along that odious Smithers and takes you to the music festival, sets up the ice cream, pays for a carriage and a corsage bouquet, at less than half the money and time I expended on you, and you give me the cold, cold shake."

The azure eyes twinkled. "Well, you see," she said, "Mr. Smithers bunched his hits."—Indianapolis Journal.

By His Works.

The new proprietor was inspecting the premises.

"Who looks after these walks and flower beds?" he inquired.

"I do, sir," answered the man with the hoe.

"What is your name?"

"Bumgardner."

"Well, that's what you are."—Chicago Tribune.

Why She Was Jubilant.

There was a vivacious smile on her face which was most winsome.

"Oh, dear me," she murmured happily, "I've just gotten such a bargain!"

"How, dear?" inquired her friend.

"I sent a telegram, only a quarter for ten words, and at least six of them were words of more than three syllables!"—Washington Star.

Young Hankinson—Been buying a fine, new bicycle for a lady, have you? And I suppose you paid about $6 a pound for it?

Sunday Closing of Barber Shops

The new law requiring the closing of barber shops on Sunday, except in New York and Saratoga, imposes a fine of $5 for the first violation of the law, and subsequent convictions are punishable by a fine of not less than $10 or more than $25, or by imprisonment in the county jail for not less than ten or more than twenty-five days, or by both fine and imprisonment.

A False Diagnosis

La Grippe is confounded by many persons with a severe attack of catarrh, which in some respects resembles the former. These individuals suffer severely with pain about the head, eyes and ears, with soreness in throat and stoppage of the nasal passages, and in fact, are incapacitated for work of any kind for days at a time. These are catarrhal sufferers. Ely's Cream Balm has been used with the best results in such cases. The remedy will give instant relief.
